1863

Historical Happenings

January 1	Washington, D.C., Emancipation Proclamation is signed by Abraham Lincoln.
February 23	Act establishing National Banks.
March 3	Washington, D. C. March 3, 1863

North orders first draft.

With today's signing of the Conscription Act, President Lincoln can, by executive order, compel American citizens to report for duty in the Civil War – unless they can buy their way out instead.
The law empowers the War Department to draft males of 20 to 46, for the Union army. However, for a fee of $300, ones military obligation can be waived.

May 10	Guiney Station, Virginia, Stonewall Jackson dies of wounds received at the battle of Chancellorsville.
July 1 –3	The Battle of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, ended in a southern defeat and marked the turning point in the Civil War. The South, under General Robert E. Lee, suffered more than 20,000 casualties and the North, lead by General George G. Meade, had about 18,000 casualties.
July 13-16	Draft riots in New York City.
July 17	George Wadsworth sees his name on the draft list
August 13	George Wadsworth goes "with 14 of us conscripts" to Worcester to be examined for draft.
August 24	George Wadsworth "Went to Mr. E. Adamses and got my draft papers."
Sept. 19-20	Battle of Chickamauga, Georgia. Northern casualties, 11,500 and 17,000 Southern casualties.
Nov 19	Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Abraham Lincoln delivers Gettysberg address.
